Dear Mamma.

I guess you will be surprised when you find out where we are. Tuesday morning we had this note from Agnes saying that her mother had decided to stay over Thanksgiving, and she wanted us to come out here for Thurs. & stay till Monday. She said she did not feel hardly equal to getting a Thanksgiving dinner by self, but when she found her mother would be here to help her, she wrote to us. We went to the theatre yesterday afternoon and saw the election out there. They had more than good things to eat for supper and this morning had chicken pie for breakfast. They didn't have breakfast until past 10, and we didn't get up until nine past 10. Oh it's awfully nice to lie abed as long as one likes. We haven't had dinner yet. It's sometime in the middle of the afternoon. I can't get much time to write. I should like to look in or you all and puts a mile home with you. But 3 weeks from 8. night. I'll be there.

Hastily, Love.
